

North Fulton Community Charities

Since 1983, North Fulton Community Charities (NFCC) has addressed homelessness and hunger in North Fulton. Each year the agency serves close to 10,000 individuals with emergency need in the cities of Alpharetta, Johns Creek, Milton, Mountain Park, and Roswell.

Qualified residents can receive:

1. Emergency financial assistance for housing, utilities, medical care, transportation, and other necessities.
2. Food and staples.
3. Vouchers to purchase clothing from the NFCC Thrift Shop.
4. Education for work force development and life skills workshops to help move toward financial stability and self-sufficiency.
