MAYOR'S REPORT

Still stated two issues had been reported during the last Fulton County Mayors meeting. He noted the discussion of light and heavy rail and the transit study and the increase of property values over the next two years. Belser suggested a cap on percentage of increase.

Still stated he had met with Andy Suggs, a local resident, and Council Member Robert DeLaSalle regarding branding the city. Suggs stated he had been a resident since 1998 and had done Roswell's logo. He further stated a brand is a promise of who we are as a city and the best way to start our story was with a mission statement and maybe a new logo and signage. He noted it could possibly increase revenue. DeLaSalle noted his involvement was sprucing up the green to increase rentals. While Mills noted the city couldn't physically grow, Suggs stated it would improve the sense of community.

COUNCIL REPORTS

Carlson noted an upcoming Partners in Progress meeting October 17.

Segars reviewed the building permits, announced the pool closure for the season, the advertisement of the lake study RFP, and ongoing discussions with Cherokee County.
